

COMMAND MASTER CHIEF BTCM DAVID P. WEBB UNITED STATES NAVY

DAVID P. WEBB
MASTER CHIEF BOILER TECHNICIAN
(SURFACE WARFARE)
UNITED STATES NAVY

Master Chief Boiler Technician (SW) David P. Webb brings 26 years of Navy experience to his present position as Command Master Chief aboard USS ACADIA (AD-42).

Master Chief Webb, a native of Denver, Colorado, began his military career at the age of 19. He graduated from North High School in Denver in 1960 and enlisted in the U.S. Navy in September of the same year.

After completing basic training and Boiler Technician "A" School, Master Chief Webb served aboard USS MURRAY (DDE-576), USS STRONG (DD-758) and was part of the commissioning crew of the USS SEMMES (DDG-18).