

COMMANDER JACK LONDOT EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Commander Jack L. Londot enlisted in the United States Navy at the Dallas Recruiting Station in August 1951. Following basic training in San Diego, California, Seaman Londot served aboard the Destroyer USS ROGERS (DDR 876) with the Seventh Fleet in Korean waters. Petty Officer Londot served aboard various ships of the Seventh Fleet from 1953 through 1966, obtaining the rate of Chief Petty Officer.

In October 1966, Chief Petty Officer Londot was appointed Warrant Officer, and in July 1969, commissioned an Ensign. Ensign Londot's first duty as a commissioned officer was Battalion Commander, Recruit Training Command, San Diego, California. Lieutenant Junior Grade Londot then served aboard USS DENVER (LPD 9) as First Lieutenant from May 1971 through August 1974.

Reporting to Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas, in September 1974, Lieutenant Londot was assigned as Officer-in-Charge of the Navy Detachment until August 1976.

Lieutenant Londot was transferred to USS WICHITA (AOR 1) in Alameda, California as First Lieutenant in August 1979. Lieutenant Londot was promoted to Lieutenant Commander in November, 1978.

In July 1979, Lieutenant Commander Londot assumed command of AFEES, Dallas, Texas. In November 1981, Lieutenant Commander Londot assumed command of USS MOCTOBI (ATF 105) and held command until January 1984 when he was transferred to USS CIMARRON (AO 177) as Executive Officer. Commander Londot was promoted to his present rank in September 1984.

