

OS at Work

From sending messages via flag bag and flashing light to receiving them, signal men keep the flow running smooth during fleet operations.

Signal work isn't all done outside. While in Tripoli, Libya, a special national ensign was prepared for exchange by R. W. Haywood.

Hamming it up, OS signaleers spot land after 28 days at sea.