

EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Lieutenant Commander T. V. McCully is a native of Louisville, Mississippi, and is a 1976 graduate of the NROTC program at the University of Mississippi. From 1977 to 1979 he served as Damage Control Assistant on USS GLOVER (AGFF1/FF-1098) from 1979-1981 he was the CICO and Navigator onboard USS HARRY W. HILL (DD-986). After serving as an instructor at the university of Missouri NROTC program, he returned to the fleet in 1983 as the Operations Officer of USS LYNDE McCORMICK (DDG-8), followed by an assignment as Combat Systems Officer of USS GRIDLEY (CG-21) in 1985. Before coming to ENGLAND, he served as the assistant Surface Operations Officer for COMCARCRU ONE from 1987 to 1989 with WESTPAC/North Arabian Sea cruises on USS RANGER (CV-61) and USS CONSTELLATION (CV-68). LCDR McCully moves on to become Surface Warfare instructor at Tactical Training Group Command Pacific in San Diego. In his fourteen years as a naval officer, LCDR McCully has received the Meritorious Service Medal, Three Navy Commendation Medals, and the Navy Achievement Medal. LCDR is married to LT Janet C. McCully, JAGC, USNR.

COMMAND MASTER CHIEF

Master Chief Deisher joined the Navy October 1, 1965. After attending numerous training courses, he reported to USS O'HARE (DD 889). He also served in USS DAVIS (DD 937) and as Course Coordinator at FLEASWTRACENPAC. He reported to USS ENGLAND as LCPO in May 1980. He served at FLEASWTRACENPAC as LCPO for Curriculum Development prior to assuming duties as Command Master Chief in USS ENGLAND September 1986.

