

Guam, Tepid American Island In The Marianas

Happy spent a week here, a busy week. A few visits to Gab Gab Beach, but mostly work and more work. The ship had many miles of empty-ocean steaming between Guam and Australia and home. Happy wanted them trouble-free.

Turn-to was the game from sunrise to late afternoon. The working hours were "tropical" and then some. But things got done.

By mid-April, Happy was ready for his Australia jaunt.
