

LCDR F. A. Carrier

LCDR Carrier joined the Navy in 1944 serving in Motor Torpedo Boats during World War II. After the War he served in Destroyers and Cruisers. He is a graduate of the Naval Intelligence School and served one tour as Assistant Naval Attache, London. He served in the USS RICH (DD-820), USS HANK (DD-702), USS COLUMBUS (CA-74) as Main Battery Officer and now as Executive Officer of the USS LOWRY (DD-770). He reported to the USS LOWRY after a tour of duty as Instructor at the Naval Intelligence School.

LCDR Carrier was born in Patucket, Rhode Island and is a graduate of Holy Cross College in Worcester, Mass.

Executive Officer

Ens. R. Crawford, USNR
Electronics Officer

Ens. J. R. Lowe, USN
Navigator

Ens. J. E. Prowell, USNR
Anti-Submarine Warfare Officer

LT(jg) R. J. Trask, USN
First Lieutenant