

CASTELLON . . .

CASTELLON—We were the only ship of the Sixth Fleet in Castellon, a port that many felt was the best of the cruise. The wonderful, friendly, Spanish people, the extremely low prices, the Bullfight—these all contributed to our enjoyment of Castellon, and, oh yes, the ship's party.

